CMCSS Teachers of the Year to be Celebrated

Fifty-eight educators in the Clarksville-Montgomery County School System are being honored and celebrated Thursday night at a newly designed event sponsored by James Corlew Chevrolet of Clarksville.

The teachers represent three grade-level categories set by the Tennessee Department of Education, with one educator from each category selected to represent the school system at the next level of competition as a District Teacher of the Year.

"Our educators and all of the Clarksville Montgomery School System employees are the backbone and givers of our community. The James Corlew Chevrolet Team is honored to give back by sponsoring this special event." said James Corlew, executive manager of James Corlew Chevrolet

The invitation-only event will take place at CMCSS Central Services South, located at 1312 Highway 48/13, at 5:30 p.m.
